November 25, 2010

The largest independent title company in Texas gets even larger.

Capital Title continues to extend its award-winning services to more Texans with a new office location in McKinney.

PLANO – November 25, 2010 –To better serve the residents of McKinney, Capital Title is excited to announce a new location which finally allows the company to provide its expertise and exceptional services to the area. The company has highly anticipated the expansion knowing that the move will not only create more potential clients, but give these individuals the quality help that they deserve in their real estate needs. The new office location is open to the public and located in the Appian Commercial Realty Building at 6657 Virginia Parkway, Suite 300, McKinney, Texas.

The new office will be managed by Escrow Officer and Title Examiner, Alina Taylor. Alina, a Texas native, was born and raised in McKinney and graduated from McKinney High School. Alina began her career in the title business in 1996 after graduating from Collin College. Starting from the ground up as a receptionist, Alina obtained years of knowledge and experience working in various divisions at various companies and that has helped her grow a strong understanding of the title business. She has extensive experience in both
