Parks & Recreation

<http://www.austintexas.gov/department/parks-and-recreation>
The City of Austin - Parks & Recreation Department protects and maintains park land and our urban forest, preserves trails, and offers a variety of sports, recreation, educational enrichment, arts programs, cultural opportunities, nature and aquatic activities.

Unique Attractions

Texas Capitol

1100 Congress Avenue
The most beautiful building in all of Texas – with some of the richest history – it's also free to enter. You can take one of the Capitol tours that run every 20 to 30 minutes. You can also take a self-guided tour through the various rooms and halls that make up the stunning building.

Harry Ransom Center

300 W. 21st Street
The Harry Ransom Center has one of the largest archives of original manuscripts and other historical documents. It offers rotating exhibitions throughout the year, along with permanent displays, including The Niépce Heliograph, the actual oldest surviving photograph taken in 1826 in France, and a first edition of the Gutenberg Bible.

Circuit of the Americas

9201 Circuit of the Americas Boulevard
The Circuit of the Americas features a 3.41mi racetrack and hosts the Formula One United States Grand Prix, the Motorcycle Grand Prix of the Americas and various other racing championships throughout the year. Musical guests from Mumford & Sons to Taylor Swift and Chance the Rapper have performed on the on-site Germania Insurance Amphitheater stage.

Cathedral of Junk

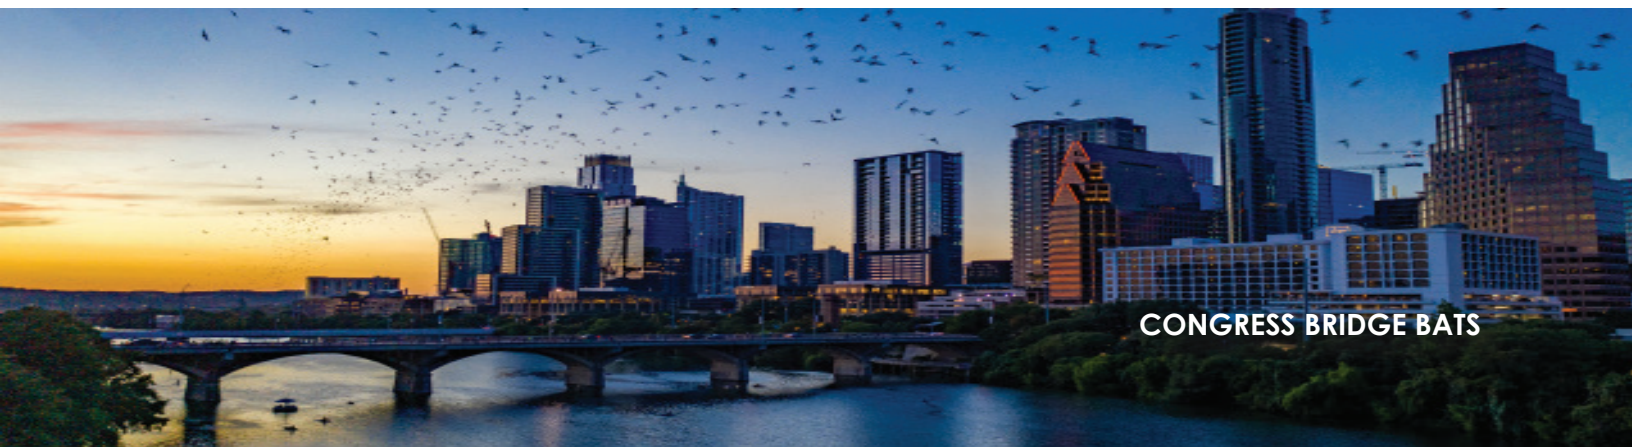

4422 Lareina Drive
Located in the backyard of the artist Vince Hannemann's house, this art installation full of 60+ tons of "junk" has been a work in progress since the 1980s. There are lots of random objects as well as multiple staircases leading you to the top of the cathedral, which is three "floors" high.

Barton Springs Pool

2201 William Barton Drive
On a hot Austin day, there is nothing better than jumping into Barton Springs Pool. This spring-fed pool is around 68°F year-round, so it may require a bit of courage to get in, but once you get over the initial shock, the temperature feels amazing on a hot summer's day!

Congress Avenue Bridge Bats

Arch Bridge on Congress Avenue
Watch the largest urban bat colony in the world fly out from under below the Congress Avenue bridge. Every night from March through November, people gather along the bridge, as well as below, to see the bats embark on their nightly flight hunting insects to eat.

Spare Time Texas

1724 FM 685
Spare Time Texas is an event venue with a full bowling alley, laser tag, arcade, and Shaker's Restaurant and Bar. This is a local favorite for indoor fun and some of the best made in-house pizza around! Spare Time has daily deals and specials as well, making it affordable and fun for the whole family! Whether you're going for a date, a day out with friends or even just for laughs, you'll never be bored here!

Spirit of Texas Independent Distillery

1715 Dalshank Street, Suite A
Spirit of Texas is Pflugerville's original distillery, featuring their award winning Pecan Street Rum, Pfluger Single Malt Whiskey, and Straight Silver Rum. Their passion is making unique, top-shelf spirits and showcasing them in custom cocktail creations in their tasting lounge. They offer tours for the curious and tastings for the bold, with Live music and local food trucks every weekend.

NE Metropolitan Skate/Bike Park

2703 Pecan Street
Enjoy an atmosphere of serene picnic areas and trails, sleek skate park, lush green sports fields, and a world class BMX Track at Northeast Metro Park. It is a multi-use recreational area with athletic fields, tennis courts, a BMX racetrack, and a skate park. A two mile concrete sidewalk follows along Gilleland Creek in the park, making it ideal for biking, jogging, or walking while observing nature. The Northeast Metro Skate Park opened Tuesday, September 18, 2012. It boasts 41,450 square feet of concrete action to enjoy! There's plenty of room to learn or hone your street and bowl skills.
